POLICY LETTER: 2013- 07

Sept. 29, 2013

SUBJECT: ISA WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP (SINGLES AND TEAM) DRESS CODE

These traditional World Shuffleboard Championships consist of independent singles and or organized teams to include youth teams and United Nations team/s for new member nations that have insufficient players to field a full team. All teams without exception will have a Team Captain and wear a uniform of their selection to represent their home nation. United Nations players will receive the standard UN uniform shirt and cap, which is provided by the ISA. World Singles players have the option to wear their national uniform or clothing representative of their home nation.

Meet n Greet: Casual attire

Opening Ceremony: Team Competitors will wear their national uniforms and Singles will wear either their national uniform or clothing representative of their nation.

Competitive Games: Team Competitors will wear their national uniforms and Singles will wear either their national uniform or clothing representative of their nation.

Hall of Fame: This is a very solemn and special evening, normally attended by Municipal and Government Officials. Team uniforms including shorts, t-shirts and ball caps are considered inappropriate. Acceptable attire for this evening includes slacks, shirt, sport coat for men, and dressy separates or a dress for ladies.

Awards Ceremony /Banquet: Although this is the grand highlight of the international event and most often has Municipal and Government Officials in attendance as well as various types of media coverage, Team Uniforms and for Singles, either their national uniform or clothing representative of their nation is considered APPROPRIATE attire.
